

RECOGNITION

In 2012, we were grateful to be recognized by customers, partners, industry associations and leading media authorities. Among the major customer awards received during the year, were:

- “2012 Excellence in Service Logistics Award” from Cisco Systems;
- “2011 General Motors Supplier of the Year Award” (awarded March 2012)
- “2011 Domino’s Pizza Supplier of the Year Award” (awarded June, 2012)

On the media and publication front, Ryder was honored by a wide variety of highly respected media sources, including:

- Supply & Demand Chain Executive magazine’s 2012 Green Supply Chain Award for assisting Ryder’s customers in achieving their sustainability goals;
- Ryder and its customer, Fresh & Easy Neighborhood Market, a leading grocery retailer, have received the prestigious LQ (Logistics Quarterly) 2012 Best Third Party Logistics (3PL) Performer in Sustainability Award; and
- Food Logistics magazine’s FL100, an annual listing of top technology solutions and software providers to food, beverage, and consumer packaged goods (CPG) companies.

In addition, Ryder earned special recognition for our leading efforts in sustainability and the environment, including:

- Being named “One of the Top Green Companies in the U.S.” by Newsweek magazine for the third year in a row, maintaining its overall position to No. 111 out of 500 ranked companies;
- Recognition as a Clear Air Champion by the Tucson and Phoenix Clean Cities Coalition at the Arizona Clean Cities Coalitions’ Legislative Breakfast, which was recently held at the Arizona State Capital; and
- Earning the 2012 Diversity in Action Award, the seventh annual diversity and inclusion award of the Greater Miami Society for Human Resource Management. The award, which recognizes an organization in South Florida that promotes diversity and inclusion in the workplace.
